ANNOUNCEMENTSHOLY CONVERSATION

We are people who yearn to have vision - vision for the present and vision for the future. Even so, we are too often unable or unwilling to see the truth of God's presence, and see God's love in our own lives and the lives of others.

There are times when we are too blind to see what is actually going on around us.

There are times when we turn away, preferring not to see realities that challenge us or make us uneasy.

There are times when we wring our hands as if we are helpless, wishing things would change, when, if we looked, we could see steps we might take to help those things change.

There are times when we ignore or discount others' stories rather than confront difficult truths that make us uncomfortable.

May our eyes and our hearts be opened, so that we can truly see the deep realities of the world, our place in it, and God's vision for it. Amen.

ANTHEM My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

Words: Psalm 23, paraphrased by Isaac Watts (1674-1470);

Music: American Folk Hymn, melody from Southern Harmony, 1835, arr. Mark Wilberg

Oboe - Glenda Hofmeister

*My Shepherd will supply my need;
Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed,
beside the healing stream.
He brings my wand'ring spirit back,*

*when I forsake his ways,
and leads me for his mercy's sake,
in paths of truth and grace.*

*When I walk through the shades of death,
thy presence is my stay;*

One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away.

*Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
doth still my table spread;*

*My cup with blessings overflows,
thine oil anoints my head.*

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days;

*O may thy house be mine abode
and all my work be praise!*

There would I find a settled rest while others go and come,

*no more a stranger, nor a guest;
but like a child at home.*

REFLECTION

HYMN - Wash, O God, Your Sons and Daughters
