*May the road rise to meet you;
May the wind be always at your back;

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

As we gather for worship today, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is Treaty 6 territory, the ancestral land of several Indigenous nations, and part of the homeland of the Metis. We respect the sacredness of our shared home and the ground on which we walk, and we are grateful for its stewardship through the centuries.

Grateful

*Grateful for the life you give us,
thankful for your Holy son,

GREETING GOD'S FAMILY

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HOLY CONVERSATION Our hearts yearn for God's peace. Our spirits long with passion for God's justice. Yet we find it so hard to hold peace and justice together in our living.

When we are filled with fear for the safety for ourselves and those close to us, may we discover the truth of God's Spirit always with us, speaking holy love and care into every moment. When we speak or act in ways that break others' hearts and lives, may we make new deeds as followers of Jesus' ways - the ways of forgiveness and harmony and welcome. When our own comfort and ease too fully set our choices and decisions, may we hear faith's call to compassion and service for all God's people. When we back away from the difficult tasks of seeking justice and loving kindness, may we uncover within us the courage and commitment to confront the world's evils.

When there is so much that fosters fear, when so much can feel too risky, when we worry so much about loss, may we renew our faith in Jesus' vision of God's realm among us, known through peace with justice. Amen.
