

IN OUR COMMUNITY

WINTER STORIES: Wednesday, January 31 at 5:30 pm in the Gordon Oaks Red Bear Centre on U of S campus. Winter Stories is a storytelling event that brings indigenous and non-indigenous tellers, poets and musicians together in the indigenous tradition of sharing stories in the heart of winter. This year it is held on the eve of Indigenous Storytelling Month in Saskatoon. Elder Terry Atimoyoo, and Cree storyteller Paula Howe join Danica Lorier, Elise Pallagi and Lorne Deighton in offering their gifts. The event is hosted by the Ecumenical Chaplaincy at the University of Saskatchewan and Rev. David Kim-Cragg. Join students from the U of S and come in out of the winter cold to be warmed by stories of the heart.
